Hi Tshingombefiston,

Thank you for taking the time to submit your application for Customer Success Account Manager (Job number: 200042522). We're glad you're interested in a career at Microsoft, and we're here to help you find your next role.

You may not receive feedback from us on your application directly, but please know that it's being evaluated, and you'll hear from us as soon as the review process is complete. If you're selected for an interview, you'll be notified by the recruiting team.

Updates regarding your application status can be viewed through your Action Center. If you see the job moved to an inactive state, that means the position is either no longer open, you withdrew from consideration, or you were not selected for the role.

How's your profile?

A key part of the review process is evaluating your profile in relation to the job requirements, so please make sure your profile is accurate and extensive – it's our first step in getting to know you! We encourage you to check back frequently and continue to look for opportunities that match your interests, as new jobs are being posted regularly.

Thank you,
Microsoft Recruiting
